Presentation structure

- ▶ Performance : Q2 & 6M FY 2011-12
- ▶ Review of Business Units
- ▶ Outlook and Risks

Outlook and Risks

- ▶ Recovery in USA and Europe uncertain, possibilities of double dip recession still exist
- ▶ India GDP growth revised in the region of 7 to 7.5% against earlier forecasts of 8.0%
- ▶ RBI has been consistently increasing Interest rates
 - ▶ Negligible impact so far on Inflation in spite of many rate hikes
 - ▶ However, further hikes not expected as growth might get impacted
- ▶ Decision making and reform process has come to a halt, impacting confidence
 - ▶ Government focus on infrastructure spending required to sustain growth going forward

Outlook and Risks

Indian Operations

- ▶ Raw material inflation is a cause of concern, however crude showing signs of softening
 - ▶ Lot of volatility due to supply-demand equations; some materials like Rutile continue to rise; some crude derivatives show softening
 - ▶ Depreciation of the Rupee has impacted adversely; else softening may have been more beneficial
- ▶ Automotives growth seem to be slowing down due to the impact of Interest rate hikes
- ▶ Key variable is demand; domestic demand except for new construction seems robust
 - ▶ Good rainfall a big positive

Outlook and Risks

International Operations

- ▶ Market conditions across the Caribbean region continue to be depressed
- ▶ Political uncertainty in Egypt continues and market conditions are expected to remain tough
- ▶ The demand has been fairly good in Asia except for Singapore
- ▶ Raw material inflation is a global phenomena and continues to be a big concern

Thank you...
